Department of Geography

Tenure-stream appointment for an Assistant Professor in Climatology
<http://www.geog.uvic.ca/dept/cag/jobs.htm#L770>

The Geography Department invites applications for a position in Climatology. The successful candidate will be expected to teach at the undergraduate and graduate levels and should demonstrate commitment to excellence in teaching and research. Candidates should be engaged in an active research program. The position will normally commence July 1, 2009, subject to budgetary approval, and will be made at the rank of Assistant Professor.

The position normally requires a completed doctoral degree for the appointee to receive the rank of Assistant Professor and to be in a tenure-track position. (If a successful candidate has not completed an earned doctorate, he/she shall be appointed to a regular term, non-renewable three-year appointment at the rank of Assistant Professor. If the candidate completes all the requirements for the doctorate during the first 24 months of the term appointment, he/she shall begin a tenure-track appointment following completion of the requirements of the degree).

Applicants can learn more about the Geography Department at www.mun.ca/geog. A current curriculum vitae, a teaching dossier and the names and addresses of three persons who can supply a letter of reference should accompany letters of application. Applications should be directed to:

Prof. Karyn Butler, Interim Head
Department of Geography
Memorial University of Newfoundland
St. John's, NL, Canada, A1B 3X9

Applications should reach the Head no later than November 10, 2008. Applications should quote the following position number: VPA-GEOG-2008-001.

Memorial University is the largest university in Atlantic Canada. As the province's only university, Memorial plays an integral role in the education and cultural life of Newfoundland and Labrador. Offering diverse undergraduate and graduate programs to nearly 18,000 students, Memorial provides a distinctive and stimulating environment for learning in St. John's, a safe, friendly city with great historic charm, a vibrant cultural life, and easy access to a wide range of outdoor activities. With over 185 regular faculty members in 15 academic departments and a wide variety of interdisciplinary major, minor and diploma programs, the Faculty of Arts offers breadth, depth and diversity. Counting around 5000 students with declared majors or minors, and with strong graduate programs, the Faculty is committed to providing solid teaching and research support to new appointees. The Faculty of Arts houses, among other units, the Institute of Social and Economic Research (ISER), ISER Books and the Digital Research Centre for Qualitative Fieldwork. It is also home to outstanding archival collections, including the Maritime History Archive, the Folklore and Language Archive and the Native Language Archive. Memorial's Queen Elizabeth II Library has excellent holdings with the most extensive collection of journals in the region. Please see <http://www.mun.ca/arts/>.

Memorial University is committed to employment equity and encourages applications from qualified women and men, visible minorities, aboriginal people and persons with disabilities. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.
